

“kn/gn” words

Decodable Sentence Strips

---

Please knead this yeast so that we can begin to cook it.

---

Chase hurt his knee when he was fighting with his sister.

---

Greg kneels down to pray before his baseball game.

---

If I had known it was going to be hard work, I would have left the dog at home.

---

Did you see that short gnome in the woods?

I will knock on the big door
and ask Troy for some cheese.

---

The dog was growling at the open window when he saw me knock.

---

Bea did not know that she left her cash in the hall.

---

Gail got a knot in her kite after slinging it around in the wind.

---

Gran knit me a scarf with a star on it for my birthday.

---

That small gnat will not leave me alone!

The tall knight was in a bad mood after he lost the battle.

---

I did not know my mom was cooking dinner for me and Mike.

---

Gramp said that the gnome in my yard will spy on my family.

---

I had to dash to the kitchen to get a knife to cut the chicken for dinner.

---

The sight of the broken knob beside Roy made me feel sick.

---

I know Chip can not swim so he can not be on the porch by himself or he may fall in the pool and drown.

I chose to kneel and pray before the game while my team was shouting at the other players.

---

The creepy gnome just keeps looking at me and Glen while we are throwing the ball.

---

I had to get on my knees to get the pound of shrimp out of the freezer.

---

Do you know the name of the knight?

---

There was a knot on the rope that I found in the backyard when I took out the trash.

---

Barb knit a shirt for the hound dog.