

“er/ir/ur” words

Decodable Sentence Strips

The bird will perch on the branch in the tree.

Kirk surfs the best when the wind will blow hard.

I see the girl slurp her
milkshake on the back porch.

The birch tree has a lot of flowers on it.

I need a jar of corn so do not burn it on the stove.

The third grader did not pass his math test.

---

I will squirm if I see a snake on the hay at the farm.

---

The clerk did not let Mark pay for his shirt.

---

I bit the side of my mouth while I ate a chip and it hurts.

---

I saw a stick swirl in a round hole.

---

I saw a star burst into flames in the sky close to the North Pole.

The car had to swerve to miss the bird skull in the road.

---

I saw the boy's mouth smirk at the park.

---

Do you see the big curve in the road?

---

The girl will twirl as May starts to hop on the ground.

---

Gail's cheese fell on the dirt so I hope she does not eat it now.

---

It is rude to eat corn then turn and spit it out of your mouth.

The play<sup>er</sup> ran and slid into thir<sup>d</sup> base.

---

Sue needs to put a top on the leftover<sup>er</sup> meal.

---

Please stir<sup>r</sup> the pot so it does not burn<sup>n</sup>.

---

The bir<sup>d</sup> in the bir<sup>d</sup>dbath
did not make a sound.

---

Fay and Pam twir<sup>l</sup>s their skir<sup>t</sup>s in the wind.

---

I found a rock by the cur<sup>b</sup> at dusk on the side of the road.