

“all/alk” words

Decodable Sentence Strips

Grant needs to call his dad to pick him up from sports camp.

Norm likes to play with chalk in the morning time.

The girl cut down the tall cornstalk in the yard.

The hallway is very loud when all the boys run down it.

You must not talk in church when the preacher is there.

Cain needs a round ball to throw at the flame.

---

Dad and Mom said not to feed the goat on the sidewalk.

---

If you step on the hamburger grease you may fall down.

---

When the pot boils, I will shout for Jane to put a small corn cob to cook.

---

I paid for my small meal with cash.

---

The floor of the pig's stall was moist from the last night's rain.

I bit the side of my mouth as I sat down on the edge of the boardwalk.

---

Pete and Clark made small talk with the girl in the red skirt.

---

As I ran fast, the foil fell in the church hallway.

---

I was born to talk!

---

Jane and Barb are very tall third graders.

---

I see a snake by the back stall beside the barn.

Vern will call his Mom to fix his bike on the ground.

---

The moose will walk beside the car at Yellowstone.

---

The bird squalls very loud as it flies in the sky.

---

Karl frowns while he talks to the clerk.

---

Did you see that bird fly up in the hallway?

---

I had to swerve the car when I saw a small snowflake.