

“-ing” words

Decodable Sentence Strips

Bret is avoiding his friend because he lied about going to Spain.

Joe’s dog is barking at the mailman.

The breeze is blowing quite hard.

Mike will be bowling Tuesday night.

Gail is calling her mom to tell her that she needs cheese for the pizza.

The clerk is check^{ing} me out slowly at the store.

The snow is fall^{ing} quickly from the sky.

Jan is groom^{ing} my dog down
by the river.

There is a lot of noise when the boys are fish^{ing}.

Did you see the red stripe
down in the park^{ing} lot?

Mr. Twain is talk^{ing} to three girls outside his classroom.

My dad is outside waxing my mom's before he goes on his trip to Target.

Stop throwing your food!

Ms. Cook is waiting in line for her food in the lunchroom.

The boys were shouting as the loud pooch ran down the street.

Are you working on the class project?

It is storming outside.

Dad is turning the mower
around in the yard.

Martin is parking his tractor on the side of the road.

The sprout is now growing into a flower.

The thirsty cop is tracking the first robber down the street.

Rich is marching with his food to the noisy lunchroom.

Mark thinks the storm will be starting at dusk.