

“wor/igh” words

Decodable Sentence Strips

Grant can read a hard word in his book.

The bright light made it hard to read a book outside.

It is a lot of work to row the boat down the stream.

Clem will miss his flight if he does not run fast.

Clark hugs his mom tight when it is time for her to leave.

Brad got a lot of praise when he got the answer right.

Is the snow blower worth a lot of money?

The flowers have grown
high!

My red boots are too tight
on my feet.

Wow, the world is so big!

The pool feels just right on my skin.

Kirk squirms when he tries to do his work.

The clerk sighs when I give her twelve markers.

The lighthouse is dark right
now.

Shep saw a bright shirt that he wants to get his Gran.

The crack on the deck is worse that it was last night.

The milkshake is on a high shelf and I can not get it without a broom.

Dave's pants were too tight
so he had to get more.

The cut on Clark's skin was worse than I first saw.

Please make sure to put the foil on tight after you bake the cake.

I might have some snacks in my black pouch.

Her mouth has a slight tilt
when she smiles.

I will work to squish the grapes into juice.