

“ow” words

Decodable Sentence Strips

Grant will blow the grass on the driveway.

Fred will mash the bow
on the ground.

The black crow ate a hard grape.

Dave and Bart have not flown to Spain yet.

The stars glow in the dark sky.

The hound will grow if he eats a lot of snacks.

---

The thorn on the dark porch has blown to the creek.

---

There are a bunch of low branches by the train yard.

---

Did you mow the mound of grass by the porch?

---

The snake was found in the snow by the black goats.

---

I will drive slow because my left toe is broke.

Brad hit the crow that was on the branch with a brick.

---

The pipe makes a sound when I blow.

---

That is such a low strip of fabric on the porch.

---

I spent all my time at the snowpile.

---

Does cheese grow on the ground?

---

I need to plow the snow so I can get to the driveway.

Let's eat lunch so we can see the clouds blow in the sky.

---

Karl will row the boat down the stream to get to the shore.

---

Rich and Blake chat by the low park bench.

---

The corn has grown to three feet!

---

Smith will rake the leaves before the snow will get here.

---

The rows of corn are hard to see between.