

“thr” words

Decodable Sentence Strips

---

Did you see the fish
thrash next to the tree?

---

Mike likes to go on the thrill rides.

---

Brad will thrive in his class.

---

My throat is not well.

---

The queen is on her big throne.

Brad thrust the bug at Meg.

---

Rick sees a black bug
on Jan's throat.

---

My throat is dry so I had a sip of milk.

---

The plants thrive in the shade.

---

I felt a throb of pain in my leg.

---

My mom and I went to the thrift shop.

The fish will thrash when Mr. Twain takes it from the lake.

---

Sam thrust the yo-yo at Shelly.

---

There were three sacks of trash on the throne.

---

I felt my leg throb when I fell on the hike.

---

Jane's throat felt like it was on fire.

---

I felt a thrill when the geese went by.

A bug stuck Mike's throat when he was in the Jeep.

---

Tim and Blake's plant will thrive in the sunshine.

---

Did the thrift shop need you to go inside?

---

My throat will throb if I try to speak.

---

The speech Brad made was a thrill.

---

"Fay and Steve, please go and clean the throne." said Ms. Mack.