

“ou/ow” words

Decodable Sentence Strips

Jan's hound has a brown tag on his neck.

Bret, was that a loud growl?

Mary, is the pea in the pouch?

Wow, the snake made a loud sound!

Clark will frown if he does not win the game.

My mouth licks the white whip cream.

---

The white cloud floats in the blue sky.

---

The town is not far from the North Pole.

---

The storm made the ground wet.

---

Our round porch has a bunch of cracks on it.

---

The white gown has a stain on the left arm.

How will we make art at lunch on the ranch?

---

The brown cow was born to Clark on the farm.

---

Ouch! Do not chomp down on my arm.

---

I need to plow the yard
to plant the grass seed.

---

Do not let the boy drown in the pond if he can not swim.

---

The clown will hit a rock with a stick to make Fran smile.

Blake found a chip in the brown couch.

---

Mars is red and round.

---

I will make a vow to not cheat on my math test.

---

My Ford truck has a flat tire from a nail on the ground.

---

Jack, go pick up the dog's leash now.

---

I need flour to make a cake that will smell like roses.